

ANCIENT PEAKS

“One of Paso Robles’ coolest spots...The Pacific Ocean lies just 14 miles beyond...Margarita Vineyard includes blocks of vines on virtually bare shale...Oyster Ridge is perhaps the most dramatically calcareous chunk of earth in the entire state.”

-Luke Sykora, Wine & Spirits, May 2011

“And for the best value on the dollar, it’s hard to beat the short but impressive track record of Ancient Peaks. The 2008 Syrah, Zinfandel and Merlot are all best buys.”

-Tim Fish, Wine Spectator, February 23, 2011

“There are plenty of good values out there, and not all of them are cranked out by nameless wine factories. Case in point is Ancient Peaks, a Central Coast winery owned by a group of winegrowing families. All its wines sell for less than $20, and they consistently deliver well beyond their price range.”

-Tim Fish, Wine Spectator, December 2010

“Ancient Peaks is quickly becoming one of our favorite consistent producers of affordable wines with lots of personality, sourced from the Margarita Vineyard, just 14 miles from the Pacific Ocean.”

-The Wine Spectator, November 2010

“As we tasted through the varietals...the common thread was exotically rich, voluptuous fruit and a serious backbone.”
